

Be a part of the action!

Hinrich Trade Negotiation Simulation

Oct. 27 - 28, 2018 • University of the Philippines Cebu

What is Trade Negotiation Simulation?

It is an education experiential initiative to help University students and young professionals learn from experienced trade negotiators and experts about the dynamics of trade negotiation and international relations.

Global Trade Expert

Stephen Olson
Research Fellow –
Hinrich Foundation

Critical issue for sustainable prosperity

Trade is a proven engine of growth, providing sustainable jobs, economic advancement and prosperity for nations. However, the world trade system is in danger of being torn apart due to the rise of protectionism, putting the gains trade offers at risk.

Be a part of the “trade negotiators elite force” to promote sustainable development in Philippines and the world!

NEW PROGRAM! Hinrich Trade Negotiation Simulation Cebu:

- 48 select students coached by experts to perform as senior trade negotiators
- 6 country teams strive to reach consensus
- 2 days of intensive life-like action – an unforgettable experience!

Practical life-skills

- Develop your negotiation skills to help you at school, work and life!
- Networking with your peers, trade professionals & experts
- Enhance your knowledge of behind-the-scenes diplomacy
- Receive certificates and special gifts

Program Timeline

Oct 27 - 28 – Simulation days

Oct 20 – Briefing day

Oct 12 – Results announcement

Oct 5 – Application deadline

In partnership with

For more details, contact Hinrich Foundation

Ms. Mary Ann Docuyan
maryann.docuyan@hinrichfoundation.com
(+63) 917 122 4324

University of the Philippines Cebu

Prof. Yuleta Orillo • yorillo1@up.edu.ph
(+63) 923 335 5548

How to apply

Note: No participation fee applied. Only deposit PHP 500 - shall be refunded after the conference.

Download Delegate application form at bit.ly/registrationform_htnscebu

Application deadline:
5 October
APPLY NOW!

